

Student Agreement

1. I agree to read and follow all Holland Christian/agency rules and expectations for me as outlined in the Holland Christian High School Student Handbook and the agency student handbook, if applicable. I will ask clarifying questions to my agent to better understand expectations and responsibilities of the program.

2. I agree to ask clarifying questions of my host family to better understand expectations and responsibilities in their home. I will keep my room neat and clean. I agree to attend church with my host family and participate in church and family activities. I will make every effort to make my home-stay experience a successful one.

3. I agree and understand that my host family will provide me with a bed, a dresser, a place to study as well as three meals a day. I understand that any expenses over and above this are my responsibility, including any damages that I may cause while living in their home.

4. I agree to do my best to succeed academically and to maintain a 70% minimum in all my classes. I will ask for help when I do not understand and will seek tutoring, if necessary. I understand I am responsible for my academic success while at Holland Christian.

5. I agree and understand no guarantee is made to me with regard to participation in sports and if I try out for a sports team, I am not guaranteed a place on the team.

6. I agree to attend a one-semester Bible class each academic year and weekly chapels as expected for all Holland Christian students. I understand no exceptions will be made for me; this includes students who may come from a different religious background.

7. I agree to not obtain a driver's license, and I understand participation in a driver's education class is not permitted.

8. I agree and understand no guarantee is made to the student with regards to participation in sports and students who try out for sports teams are not guaranteed a place on the team.

9. I agree to not take or seek employment while in the U.S.

I agree to adhere to the rules and regulations of the Holland Christian Community Code and the student agreement. Failure to adhere to these rules will result in my dismissal from Holland Christian High School (circle answer).
